Contact phase

- Each semester is supplemented by a one-week contact phase in Germany. Travel and accommodation costs are borne by the students themselves.
- Lectures are held in person and some group work or similar is carried out, which helps students to network with each other and prepare for the examination units.
- The contact phases are obligatory, and they include project works as a form of exam.

First Contact phase

- The first contact phase will take place from November 28th to December 2nd, 2022 at TUM Science & Study Center Raitenhaslach, Bavaria, Germany
- You are responsible for your accommodation. Please contact the Hotel Glöcklhofer to book your room using the code „TVET“. Deadline two weeks prior the contact phase
- If you want to book a double room together with a peer, please make the arrangements independently through the Moodle forum.
