

Dr. Andreas Werner

Expert in Vocational Education and International Cooperation

Dynamic Leader in Global Education

Dr. Andreas Werner brings eight years of expertise in international education and cooperation and more than five years in leadership. As Head of the BMBF initiative “iMOVE: Training – Made in Germany” at the German Federal Institute of Vocational Education and Training (BIBB), he spearheads efforts to foster global partnerships in vocational training.

With a robust background in diplomacy from his tenure at the German Federal Foreign Office in Berlin, Dr. Werner excels in bridging governmental and private sectors to enhance educational cooperation worldwide. His PhD and MA in International Relations underscore his foreign policy and diplomacy proficiency.

Renowned for his public speaking prowess, Dr. Werner was selected as the 2023 North European and German champion of impromptu international speech by Toastmasters International.

Native speaker in German and English, with near-native proficiency in Spanish and Portuguese, Dr. Werner has lived in the US, UK, Brazil, Mexico, and Spain, accumulating over 15 years of international experience. His BA in linguistics from Cambridge University further attests to his exceptional language skills.

Dr. Werner is dedicated to uniting people worldwide around education, the environment, languages, and culture. His work emphasizes sustainable cooperation within educational frameworks.

Key Areas of Expertise:

- Facilitating international cooperation in vocational education and training (TVET)
- Shaping education policy with a global perspective
- Diplomacy and international relations
- Engaging multi-disciplinary teams and stakeholders globally

Join Dr. Werner for an engaging and insightful session as he shares his knowledge and experience in vocational education and international cooperation.